Consulted people or groups

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for listing consulted people or groups.

Informed people or groups

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for listing informed people or groups.

Summary and evidence of findings from EIA

This should have a positive impact for children and young people, as schools and alternative providers are able to access good quality legal process training and advice and guidance following Ofsted outcomes.

The service will monitor the income from these activities. There seems to be continued demand for the services, and these fees and charges will bring the service more in line with other provision outside of Birmingham.
