Birmingham Design Guide Supplementary Planning Document

Adoption Statement

In accordance with Regulation 14 of the Town and Country Planning (Local Development) (England) Regulations 2004 (as amended), Birmingham City Council hereby gives notice that the Birmingham Design Guide Supplementary Planning Document (SPD) was adopted on 6th September 2022.

The SPD provides supplementary guidance and detail to support policies in the adopted Birmingham Development Plan (2017) and the Development Management in Birmingham Document (2021). The SPD was modified in response to comments received during the public consultation period on the draft SPD undertaken between November 2020 and February 2021.

The adopted Birmingham Design Guide SPD, the Consultation Statement (including a summary of the main issues raised and how they have been addressed in the SPD) and this Adoption Statement can be viewed on the Council's website at: www.birmingham.gov.uk

Any person aggrieved by the adoption of the Birmingham Design SPD may make an application to the High Court under Section 113 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 on the grounds that:

- a) the document is not within the appropriate powers conferred by Part 2 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004;
- b) a procedural requirement of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 has not been complied with.

Any such application must be made promptly, and in any event no later than the end of the period of six weeks of the date of the adoption of the Birmingham Design SPD.
