

Council Tax Support Information Sheet

Background Information

The Government abolished Council Tax Benefit with effect from 1 April 2013, and local authorities have to administer a local scheme of Council Tax Support.

Consultation on the draft Council Tax Support Scheme ran for three months from September 2013. After taking into account public feedback, the final scheme was approved by the City Council on the 8 January 2013.

Protected Groups

The Council Tax Support Scheme will provide protection where the Claimant or their partner :

- is a pensioner.
- is entitled to a disability premium, severe disability premium, enhanced disability premium or disabled child premium
- is entitled to Employment Support Allowance and receives a qualifying disability related benefit
- qualifies for a carer's premium
- receives a war disablement pension, war widows pension or war widower's pension
- has a dependant child under 6

The protected groups will still have council tax support worked out using 100% of their council tax liability. – See *Glossary of Terms attached.

Working Age Claimants

If claimants or their partners are not in one of the protected groups above and they submit a claim for council tax support, the minimum amount they will pay towards their Council Tax bill will be set at 20%. The amount each householder pays is dependent on their individual circumstances.

Conversion of Council Tax Benefit Claims

If claimants were getting Council Tax Benefit as at 31 March 2013, they were automatically converted to Council Tax Support on 01 April 2013, and did not need to make a new claim.

Limit on backdating claims

The limit for backdating Council Tax Support claims will up to be one month.

Council Tax Discretionary Fund

The Discretionary fund will be made available to assist those people who will experience financial difficulty as a result of the new Council Tax Support scheme.
